

ASSIGNMENTS

Assignment 3-1

Find a minimum of thirty observations in Acts 1:8. List them on a sheet of paper. Avoid making interpretations or applications at this stage. That is, stay with observations. For example, an observation would be to note that the passage starts off with the conjunction "but." This conjunction connects the sentence to the one above it in a contrasting way. If, however, you were to note that the Holy Spirit empowers us for evangelism, that observation falls into the category of interpretation or application. Do not enter the interpretation or application phase yet. Limit all thirty of your observations to the details and not to the interpretation of the details. Work hard! Dig deep! Read and reread the passage. Do not quit until you have found at least thirty observations. Try to find more than thirty. Happy hunting!

Assignment 3-4

Photocopy this page from 1 Timothy 6:17-19 and make as many observations as you can on this passage. Follow the format presented in the example of Romans 12:1-2.

17 Command those who are rich in this present world

not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth,

which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God,

who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.

18 Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds,

and to be generous and willing to share.

19 In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves

as a firm foundation for the coming age,

so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

¹⁸Then Jesus came to them and said,

"All authority in heaven and on earth

has been given to me.

¹⁹Therefore go and make disciples of all nations,

baptizing them in the name of the Father

and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

²⁰and teaching them to obey

everything I have commanded you.

And surely I am with you always,

to the very end of the age."
