  - How many times is the word used in Matthew, Mark, and Luke? 0
  - Is this the same word for "hope" that is used in 1 Corinthians 13:13? Yes

Assignment 9-2

You are studying the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 5-7) and the word "anxious" in Matthew 6:25 catches your eye. You decide to study the word "anxious" more in depth. Use the STEP Bible program as your concordance to answer the following questions:

- What is the Greek word for "anxious" in Matthew 6:25? Write out the word in transliterated English form: Merimnaō
- How many times is it used in the New Testament? 19 (ESV)
- Now do some more concordance work to decide what the word "anxious" could mean in the New Testament. Make a list of the "meanings" provided in the box to the right in the STEP Bible program. This gives you a good sense of what the word could mean. But you need to look a bit more closely at the context. There is an art to identifying a word's semantic range. Don't give up. Keep working at it and you'll find that it gets easier
